Culture

our current mainstream culture, one of hyper-organization, quickness, immediate gratification, one of immediate answers.

Google can answer most questions, as well as define subjective concepts with grids of images, revealing popular perception of them. Such image searches for "beauty" or "sad" are telling of society.

Results

intaes is the "internet aesthetic" a modern phenomenon, subculture, that is a response to Google. intaes includes art and design that involves dolphins, houseplants, gradients and browser windows. intaes is the subcultural response to the purpose of google. it is colorful, sometimes arbitrary, lo-fi, houseplants, gradients and browser windows. and is meant to leave one confused. it is anti Google.

Pre-judgment

although Google has made information gathering easier, as well as pretty much everything else, these prejudices are still affected by people's prejudices. these prejudices are based on judgment, judgment is based on classification. hyperclassification leads to more judgment. drawing pre-mature conclusions about certain ethnicities, groups or ideas via Google lead to more judgment. drawing pre-mature conclusions about certain ethnicities, groups or ideas via Google is problematic, humans, humans, more complex forms, humans, fast, and easy, = PROBLEM

we don't have prejudices against
